CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT - 1 (No. 2:20:cv-00647-JCC)

Davis Wright Tremaine LLP LAW OFFICES 920 Fifth Avenue, Suite 3300 Seattle, WA 98104-1610 206.622.3150 main · 206.757.7700 fax David Barsky hereby confesses judgment in the amount of $254,832.71 in favor of Amazon.com Services LLC ("Amazon"). Barsky hereby authorizes the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington to enter final judgment in this matter in that amount against Barsky and in favor of Amazon.

RELEVANT FACTS

- 1. On August 28, 2019, Barsky filed a demand for arbitration (the "Demand") with the American Arbitration Association (the "AAA"), entitled David Barsky and Best Warehouse Deals LLC v. Amazon.com, Inc., Case No. 01-18-0004-4731. The Demand alleged claims arising from Amazon's suspension of Barsky's third-party seller accounts for various violations of the parties' contract and Amazon selling policies. Barsky sought damages of up to $110,663.85, plus fees and costs. Amazon filed counterclaims against Barsky on September 12, 2019, for breach of Contract, violation of the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (CFAA), and violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act (CPA).
- 2. In its counterclaims, Amazon alleged Barsky defrauded Amazon and its customers by creating, purchasing, and operating a ring of covert seller accounts without authorization using pseudonyms or other false credentials to deceive Amazon and its customers. Amazon also alleged it had received numerous complaints that Barsky used these fraudulent accounts to sell counterfeit products and that Barsky defrauded Amazon and its customers by fabricating invoices to misrepresent his inventory sourcing. Amazon sought dismissal of Barsky's claims, damages of up to $75,000.00, and attorneys' fees and costs.
- 3. On January 17, 2019, the AAA duly appointed Ramina Dehkhoda-Steele as the Arbitrator in this matter. The parties held an evidentiary hearing on February 10, 2020. The locale of the arbitration was Seattle, Washington.
- 4. On March 12, 2020, Arbitrator Dehkhoda-Steele issued an interim award in Amazon's favor. Arbitrator Dehkhoda-Steele found that Barsky "was not able to provide any credible evidence or testimony to substantiate [his] claims" and dismissed all Barsky's claims with prejudice. The Arbitrator concluded that Amazon "presented credible testimony and

1	documentary evidence on each of [its] counterclaims," for breach of contract and violation of the
2	CFAA and CPA. The arbitrator ordered Barsky to pay Amazon $60,000.00 in damages on its
3	counterclaims, plus attorneys' fees and costs as the prevailing party on its CPA and CFAA
4	counterclaims.
5	5. Pursuant to the arbitrator's award, Amazon filed a request for fees and costs in the
6	amount of $194,832.71 on April 3, 2020.
7	6. Before the issuance of a final award, the parties entered a confidential settlement
8	agreement, in which Barsky agreed to entry of this judgment. The Parties' settlement agreement
9	provides that Washington law governs.
